

Bachelor Programs

Engineering and Management

2020 - 2021

Business Engineering and Management

Faculty of Entrepreneurship, Business Engineering and Management

The Business Engineering and Management Bachelor's Degree Program offers an undergraduate specialization. As a distinguishing element, the program offers a wide range of entrepreneurial, technical and management competences, proving to be a valuable solution for a successful management or entrepreneurship career.

Contact person:

Assoc. prof. Dana Corina DESELCU

Mechanical Engineering and Management

Faculty of Engineering in Foreign Languages

The bachelor program of Mechanical Engineering offers an interdisciplinary combination of disciplines from business, engineering and law sciences for students which already master German as well as for those who graduate a preparatory year with intensive teaching of German with accent on technical language and communication.

Contact person:

Assist. prof. Laura TRIFAN
laura.trifan@upb.ro

Electrical Engineering and Management

Faculty of Engineering in Foreign Languages

The bachelor program of Electric Engineering and Management offers an interdisciplinary combination of disciplines of business, engineering and law for students who already master German, as well as for those who graduate from a preparatory year with intensive teaching of German with stress on technical language and communication.

Contact person:

Assoc. prof. Cristian MUSTAȚĂ

cristian.mustata@upb.ro

